- 599 GR 4,5,6 BROKEN TOY Raymond is a 12-year-old boy who lives with his grandmother. His lonely life is made even harder by the cruel verbal and physical treatment he receives from other children at school. Raymond is the constant victim of bullying from Mike, Troy, and their "followers." To these youngsters, Raymond's feelings mean nothing. That is until one day when they go too far. Nobody meant for it to get out of hand and certainly the children did not mean for the accident to happen but it did. Combining a dramatic storyline, performed realistically by actual school-children, Broken Toy is a powerful tool that addresses the problem of bullying directly to children.

Translated and Introduced by Helen Waddell
By the fourth century A.D., devout Christians-men and women alike-had begun to retreat from cities and villages to the deserts of North Africa and Asia Minor, where they sought liberations from their corrupt society and the confining shell of the social self. The Desert Fathers is the perfect introduction to the stories and saying of these heroic pioneers of the contemplative tradition.
- 228 CE DESERT WISDOM SAYING FROM THE DESERT FATHERS Translation and art by Yushi Nomura Here are a hundred "sayings" of the desert fathers, each accompanied by playful illustration by Japanese artist Yushi Normura. Bridging East and West, the simple truths Desert Wisdom remain as fresh and vital today as ever.
